TRANSITIVE & INTRANSITIVE VERBS

A verb is said to be transitive when it has an object to make complete sense.

For example:

1. Lily conveyed the message.
2. I caught a cold.
3. Could you call the neighbours?

A verb is said to be intransitive when it does not require an object to make complete sense.

For example:

1. He plays well.
2. Our plane will take off in twenty minutes.
3. The baby was smiling.
